

The Grand Del Mar

Chmp Tees: Par 71 Yards: 6,885 yds Rating: 73.5 Slope: 134

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Previously known as Del Mar National, The Grand Del Mar was designed by internationally renowned golf course architect, Tom Fazio and includes a stunning Frank Lloyd-Wright inspired clubhouse. The course features a winning combination of scenery, wildlife refuge and challenging golf holes which will make your golf event unforgettable. The course combines undulating fairways bordered by rustic habitat areas with open meadows and gaping valleys. Most of the fairways are ample and gently sloped toward the middle and are lined by thick chaparral and colorful sage. The course is located in a region of San Diego that is close to the freeways but hidden away from the hustle and bustle of metropolitan living. The expansive clubhouse features a bar and restaurant with indoor and outdoor seating, locker rooms and an upscale golf shop. The course includes a 25 station driving range and an oversized practice putting green.

DIRECTIONS: Approximately 30 minutes from downtown, From I-5, exit on the 56 East/Carmel Valley Road Junction. Proceed 1-1/2 miles to the Carmel Country Road exit. Turn right and proceed one quarter of a mile to Meadows Del Mar and turn left at the Golf Club entrance. Please allow ample time for traffic conditions.
