

EAGLE CREST Golf Club

Blue Tees: Par 72 Yards: 6,417 yds Rating: 71.6 Slope: 130

COURSE DESCRIPTION: Tucked in the San Pasqual Valley, this 18 hole championship golf course offers a spectacular setting that abounds with natural beauty. In addition to the wildlife preserve that winds through this secluded valley, master architect, David Rainville, has incorporated the rolling terrain, wild flowers, waterfalls and 8 lakes into a striking design of considerable enjoyment.

DIRECTIONS: Approximately 40 minutes from downtown, Eagle Crest Golf Club is located one mile from the Wild Animal Park in Escondido. From I-15 take the Via Rancho Parkway Exit. Go east to San Pasqual Road. Turn right on San Pasqual and travel for 5 miles. San Pasqual will change into Cloverdale. Make a right on Rockwood to the Eagle Crest Golf Club entrance. Please allow ample time for traffic conditions.
